Miss Ada Coons is confined to her apartments at the Hill House. Her condition is now much improved.

If you wish to save money in purchasing Gold Glasses, go to Cloney's. His stock is complete. Eyes fitted free.

A cough is not like a fever. It does not have to run a certain course. Cure it quickly and effectively with One Minute Cough Cure, the best remedy for all ages and for the most severe cases. We recommend it because it's good. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

The LEDGER proposes to give its readers a feast for the eye and mind in its Thanksgiving issue in the way of appropriate illustrations—one full page in colors to the queen's taste and three other pages that are unique and entertaining, as well as amusing. This special edition is to appear on Wednesday, November 23d, thus giving the advertisers who have taken cards the full benefit of the Thanksgiving purchases.

THE BEE HIVE. FOUR Cloak Specials

These "specials" are no more worthy than any other of the thousand and one garments in our immense Cloak stock. We've simply selected these four numbers at random so that you can give 'em "special" attention and make proper comparisons. Number one is Ladies' Jacket of tan Venetian Cloth with either double breasted or box front, half silk lined, would be lower priced at $7.50, our price $9. Number two is a Misses' Jacket of Tan Velvet Cloth, box front, velvet collar, made to sell for $8.50, saving price here at $4.75. Number three is a Ladies' Double Cape of blue or black kersey cloth, trimmed with fur and three rows of Hercules Braid, others are asking $3 for such as these, priced down here at $1.80. Number four is a Fur Collarette, all silk lined, worth fully $2.50, but we've marked 'em to sell quickly at $1.75.

A Departure in Book Selling.

On our newly-opened Book Counter you'll find books so cheaply priced that you'll agree with us it's truly a "departure" from the old-time 100 per cent. profit method. We're showing an edition of standard and classical works, 101 different titles, bound in ivory finished cloth, publisher's price $20., our price $10. A magnificent copy of the great novel Quo Vadis, in cloth binding, with good paper, large type and copiously illustrated; the publisher's price is $1; to get your attention we're selling 'em at 40c.

ROSENAU BROS.,
KINGS OF LOW PRICES. PROPRIETORS BEE HIVE.

PINS, NOT PRAYERS.

One day when in a car close pressed, I saw a girl touch throat and breast As though she would from heaven wrest A pardon for her sins.

A saintly maiden first I thought, But later found she only sought— Deeming the crowd with danger fraught— To count her college pins.

Wedding Presents in endless variety at McCarthy's.

James Connors of Paris has filed petition in bankruptcy in United States Commissioner's office at Frankfort.

Messrs. Clay and Alfred Worick have taken rooms in the Cox Building, where they will keep Bachelor's Hall.

Don't use cooked coal with plenty of impurities and dirt thrown in when you can get Great Kanawha Coke made to burn at Wm. Davis's Coalyard.

The funeral of the venerable Jacob Outten was largely attended yesterday afternoon. 80 of his brother Oddfellows following the remains to the grave. Peace to the ashes of a human-hearted citizen.

Overcome evil with good. Overcome your cough and colds with One Minute Cough Cure. It is so good children cry for it. It cures croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and all throat and lung diseases. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

H. E. Langdon & Co.'s store will cut the life out of prices on the following goods for one week, beginning Saturday, November 5th: Brown Sugar 4c, Lard 6c, Levering's Package Coffee 9c, a pound, 7 bars "Tom Boy" Soap for 10c, New Sorghum 25c a gallon.

Many persons do not seem to know that there is a difference in hand-finished Cut Glass and "Acid Cuttings." Call and look at Murphy's line, then compare with goods shown elsewhere. You will readily see his line is all that is claimed for it. You will also learn there is no such line of Glass shown in Maysville.

Dr. W. R. Hefflin of Lakeland yesterday brought to this office a perspective view of the Central Kentucky Insane Asylum at Lakeland. The picture was drawn and colored by Charles Edward Hughes, Jr., an inmate of the institution, and is a piece of art. It shows a number of the buildings, gives a good view of the grounds and is altogether a most creditable illustration.

Formerly Redden House, 25 East Second Street. Best meals in the city for 25c.

An Oyster Stew served with every dinner without extra charge. P. LUZI, Prop. Maysville, Ky.

Employee of Maysville Firm Ends His Life in New York City.

George S. Lieber, 30 years old, a local commission salesman employed by J. W. Watson & Co., wholesale liquor dealers of this city, killed himself some time Tuesday night in a room in the Grand Union Hotel, New York, by inhaling illuminating gas.

Lieber had been in financial difficulties for some weeks. He left his home Tuesday, saying he was going to see his brothers in Philadelphia to ask for assistance, but went to the hotel instead and killed himself. The Messrs. Watson had a business letter from Mr. Lieber a few days ago, but it contained no intimation of his troubles.

Johnson's exclusive Oyster and Fish Market.

Major General "Arter Dark" Sims, whose name so frequently appears in the police bible that it ought to be electrotyped or electrotyped, was yesterday held in $250 to answer some questions that the Foreman of the Grand Jury will ask. The main one in this case will be, "Where did you get them razors and those sack of flour that you stole from George Cooper's Barbershop?"

Bishops of the Methodist Church, who have been holding their semi-annual conference in Springfield, Mass., voted to call for a "twentieth century thanks offering" of $20,000,000 from the members of the Methodist Church. The funds will be collected at intervals before January 1, 1901, and will be devoted to the improvement of educational and charitable institutions now maintained by the Methodist Episcopal Church.

LET'S GIVE HIM A BIG CROWD.

The Hon. Samuel J. Pugh will speak at the Court-house in this city at 7:30 Saturday evening. Let all voters attend to hear a discussion of the important issues that confront the country at this time.

The Best Plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by J. Jas Wood & Son, Druggists.

MCCARTHEY—WORICK.

Pretty Wedding Quietly Solemnized Last Evening.

THE REV. J. S. SIMS OFFICIATED.

Promptly at 8 o'clock last night the wedding ceremony uniting for life Mr. Lewis M. McCarthy and Miss Mattie Belle Worick was witnessed by a company of relatives and friends in the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Threlkeld's home on West Third street, they being very dear friends of the bride, produced by long years as neighbors.

Rev. J. S. Sims of the Lexington M. E. Church, South, formerly Pastor here where the bride is a member, read most impressively the Church service.

Mrs. C. Ed. Geisel presided at the piano, playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the bridal party entered from the dining-room.

First, Mrs. James E. Threlkeld and Mrs. Early Worick, groomed most charmingly; Messrs. Early and Clay, Porter and Alfred Worick, brothers of the bride, and the contracting parties, Mr. McCarthy bearing his soon-to-be bride upon his arm.

Facing the Minister and company the service was proceeded with, and soon the hallowed Benediction announced Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy, who were fairly showered with good wishes and sincere congratulations. The decorations of the home were not only artistic, but having been done by loving hearts, spoke eloquently of the esteem and affection in which the bride is held. Palms and ferns and lovely greens were banked in corner, fragrant and lamb, while blooming flowers from niche and jardiniere, curtain and chandelier gave forth beauty and fragrance amid the brilliant lights of gas jets and candles.

The bride was gown in the daintiest organ-die, virgin white, with yards and yards of ruffling twining round skirt, sleeves and bodice, the latter cut low, which but accentuated the exquisite poise of the head. She carried a huge bunch of Niphetos, and was the personification of womanly dignity, domestic virtues and wisely traits.

Mr. McCarthy is a young business man of our city who by his geniality and urbanity numbers his friends by the score. He is a high class Mason, a Knight Templar, and deserves his prize.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, being an outward means of measuring the regard and affection in which they both are held.

In launching them upon Life's sea THE LEDGER but uses the pen of prophecy dipped in the ink of good wishes to express its congratulations. May each recurring day be an anniversary, you knowing too much happiness for only an annual celebration; may song birds, those harbingers of beautiful spring, keep your hearts well knit in love because of the warmth of sunshine and joy; and when the golden skein of years has revolved from off the hands of Time may its strands be the cable of faith supporting the bridge of hope and fidelity over which you both may pass to the Eden of love, where you find a perfect consummation continued throughout eternity.

We're Glad To See You
